JUDGE:

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES
AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF*JURY DEMAND ENDORSED HEREIN

Plaintiff, Ghassan Abu Halimeh, by and through undersigned counsel, as his Complaint against the Defendant, states and avers the following:

PARTIES

1. Abu Halimeh is a resident of the city of Cincinnati, Hamilton County, Ohio.
2. Defendant JUNGLE JIM'S MARKET, INC., ("Jungle Jim's") is a domestic for-profit corporation that conducts business within the state of Ohio.
3. The relevant location of the events and omissions of this Complaint took place was 5440 Dixie Highway, Fairfield, OH 45014.
4. Jungle Jim's is, and was at all times hereinafter mentioned, Abu Halimeh's employer within the meaning of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 ("Title VII") 42 U.S.C §2000e, the Americans with Disability Act ("ADA") 42 U.S.C. §12101, and R.C. § 4112 et seq.

5. Within 300 days of the adverse employment actions described herein, Abu Halimeh filed a Charge of Discrimination with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”), Charge No. 473-2021-01181 (“EEOC Charge”).
6. On or about March 15, 2022, the EEOC issued and mailed a Notice of Right to Sue letter to Abu Halimeh regarding the EEOC Charge.
7. Abu Halimeh received the Notice of Right to Sue letter from the EEOC in accordance with 42 U.S.C. § 200e-5(f)(1), which had been attached hereto as Plaintiff’s Exhibit 1.
8. Abu Halimeh has filed this Complaint on or before the 90-day deadline set forth in the Notice of Right to Sue letter.
9. Abu Halimeh has properly exhausted all administrative remedies pursuant to 29 C.R.F. § 1614.407(b).

JURISDICTION & VENUE

10. All of the material events alleged in this Complaint occurred in or around Butler County, Ohio.
11. Therefore, personal jurisdiction is proper over Defendant pursuant to R.C. § 2307.382(A)(1) and/or (3).
12. Venue is proper pursuant to Civ. R. 3(C)(1), (3), and/or (6).
13. This Court is a court of general jurisdiction over the claims presented herein, including all subject matters of this Complaint.

FACTS

14. Abu Halimeh is a former employee of Jungle Jim’s.
15. Abu Halimeh started working at Jungle Jim’s June 6, 2020, as a seafood department manager until Jungle Jim’s unlawfully terminated Abu Halimeh’s employment around November 2020.

16. At all times noted herein, Abu Halimeh was fully qualified for, and could fully perform the essential functions of his position with Jungle Jim's.
17. Abu Halimeh is Muslim, was born in Jordan, and suffered a stroke, placing him in protected classes for religion, race/national origin, and disability.
18. Abu Halimeh gave notice to Jungle Jim's of his various protected classes during his employment.
19. Abu Halimeh did not face any issues in his early employment.
20. Abu Halimeh's manager, Ross Carrol, asked him in early July 2020 if he was Muslim to which Abu Halimeh said yes and told him he was born in Jordan.
21. Upon learning that Abu Halimeh was Muslim and Middle Eastern, Carrol started treating him differently.
22. Carrol spoke rudely to Abu Halimeh and gave him the cold shoulder.
23. On one occasion, Abu Halimeh was packing some products and suggested putting more ice in the cooler.
24. Carrol snapped "How in the fuck will that create more room?"
25. Carrol did not use profane language or act unprofessionally with any other Caucasian, American-born, or Christian employee.
26. Carrol was not given a verbal warning as a result of his discriminatory remarks to Abu Halimeh
27. Carrol was not given a written warning as a result of his discriminatory remarks to Abu Halimeh.
28. Carrol's employment at Jungle Jim's was not suspended as a result of his discriminatory remarks to Abu Halimeh.

29. Carrol's employment at Jungle Jim's was not terminated as a result of his discriminatory remarks to Abu Halimeh.
30. Around this time, Abu Halimeh complained to another seafood manager, Tim LNU, that he was being treated differently due to his race, national origin, disabled status, and religion.
31. This was a protected complaint for discrimination on the basis of religion, disability, race, and national origin.
32. In August 2020, Abu Halimeh had a meeting with Carrol and the crew about future management.
33. Carrol was leaving his position and needed someone to take the role.
34. Abu Halimeh was in line take over the management position due to his experience and qualifications.
35. Abu Halimeh applied for the management position.
36. Right before the meeting, Carrol pulled Abu Halimeh over and told him that he intended to hire Tim LNU as the manager.
37. Tim LNU took the managerial position.
38. Not giving Abu Halimeh the position and giving it instead to an employee who was much less experienced was an adverse employment action against Abu Halimeh.
39. This failure to promote Abu Halimeh was an adverse employment action against him.
40. Jungle Jim's cited reason, or lack thereof, for passing over Abu Halimeh for a promotion was pretext.
41. Jungle Jim's actually passed over Abu Halimeh for a promotion discriminatorily against his race, national origin, religion, and/or disability.

42. In or around September 2020, Abu Halimeh needed to go to the Jordanian embassy in Washington DC for his father and took time off.
43. On or around September 13, 2020, when Abu Halimeh was about to return to work the next day, he suffered a stroke.
44. Abu Halimeh was immediately hospitalized.
45. As a result of suffering from a stroke, Abu Halimeh is and was considered disabled within the meaning of R.C. § 4112.01(A)(13).
46. As a result of suffering from a stroke, Abu Halimeh is and was considered disabled within the meaning of the ADA.
47. Abu Halimeh was not able to speak or move during his stay at the hospital.
48. Abu Halimeh's wife, Yesmin Kourdi, contacted Jungle Jim's and spoke to Tim LNU to inform them Abu Halimeh wouldn't be able to come in due to the stroke.
49. This put Jungle Jim's on notice of Abu Halimeh's disability.
50. Tim LNU told Kourdi he would hold Abu Halimeh's position until he recovered.
51. In or around late October/early November 2020, Abu Halimeh called Tim LNU to ask why no one was calling him to return to work.
52. Tim LNU told Abu Halimeh he didn't know why he wasn't being called back, but would find out, and that he thought Abu Halimeh was mistreated in his managerial position.
53. Tim LNU told Abu Halimeh the next day that they had no intention of rehiring him.
54. This conversation, in or around early November 2020, constituted Abu Halimeh's termination from Jungle Jim's. This was an adverse employment action against him.
55. Abu Halimeh then contacted the store manager Kathy Dick to ask if he could return and to give information about his hospital visit.

56. Dick told Abu Halimeh there were no openings available.
57. Abu Halimeh kept following up with Dick, but her answer remained unchanged.
58. Abu Halimeh then contacted manager Nick LNU to report he was being terminated without reason.
59. Nick LNU said he would find out and call Abu Halimeh back, but he never did.
60. Abu Halimeh requested a termination letter in January 2022, but never received it.
61. Around November 2020, Abu Halimeh was actually terminated discriminatorily and in retaliation for repeated complaints of disparate and negative treatment.
62. Defendant did not proffer a legitimate non-discriminatory reason for terminating Abu Halimeh.
63. As a result of being constantly harassed and insulted on the basis of Abu Halimeh's disability, religion, and national origin during his employment at Jungle Jim's, being passed over for a promotion, and being wrongfully terminated from Jungle Jim's, Abu Halimeh has suffered severe emotional distress, anxiety, and depression.
64. The above facts demonstrate that Defendant engaged in a pattern and practice of race discrimination.
65. The above facts demonstrate that Defendant engaged in a pattern and practice of unlawful retaliation.
66. There was a causal connection between Abu Halimeh's race and Defendant's termination of Abu Halimeh.
67. There was a causal connection between Abu Halimeh's disability and Defendant's termination of Abu Halimeh.
68. As a result of Defendant's acts and omissions, Abu Halimeh has suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages.
